Disclosure

Guaranty Income Life Insurance Company ("GILICO") will obtain one or more consumer reports or investigative consumer reports (or both) about you for employment purposes as in independently contracting Producers. These purposes may include hiring, contract, assignment, promotion, re-assignment, and termination. The reports will include information about your character, general reputation, personal characteristics, and mode of living.

We will obtain these reports through a consumer reporting agency. Our consumer reporting agency is General Information Services, Inc. ("GIS"). GIS's address is P.O. Box 353, Chapin, SC 29036. GIS's telephone number is 866.265.4917. GIS's website is at www.geninfo.com.

To prepare the reports, GIS may investigate your education, work history, professional licenses and credentials, references, address history, social security number validity, right to work, criminal record, lawsuits, driving record, credit history, and any other information with public or private information sources.

You may inspect GIS's files about you (in person, by mail, or by phone) by providing identification to GIS. If you do, GIS will provide you help to understand the files, including trained personnel and an explanation of any codes. Another person may accompany you by providing identification.

If GIS obtains any information by interview, you have the right to obtain a complete and accurate disclosure of the scope and nature of the investigation performed.

The Federal Trade Commission provides a summary statement of your rights on its website at www.ftc.gov/credit.

A Summary of Your Rights Under the Fair Credit Reporting Act

The federal Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA) promotes the accuracy, fairness, and privacy of information in the files of consumer reporting agencies. There are many types of consumer reporting agencies, including credit bureaus and specialty agencies (such as agencies that sell information about check writing histories, medical records, and rental history records). Here is a summary of your major rights under the FCRA. For more information, including information about additional rights, go to www.ftc.gov/credit or write to: Consumer Response Center, Room 130-A, Federal Trade Commission, 600 Pennsylvania Ave. N.W., Washington, D.C. 20580.

- You must be told if information in your file has been used against you. Anyone who uses a credit report or another type of consumer report to deny your application for credit, insurance, or employment – or to take another adverse action against you – must tell you, and must give you the name, address, and phone number of the agency that provided the information.
 - You have the right to know what is in your file. You may request and obtain all the information about you in the files of a consumer reporting agency (your “file disclosure”). You will be required to provide proper identification, which may include your Social Security number. In many cases, the disclosure will be free. You are entitled to a free file disclosure if:
 - a person has taken adverse action against you because of information in your credit report;
 - you are the victim of identify theft and place a fraud alert in your file;
 - your file contains inaccurate information as a result of fraud;
 - you are on public assistance;
 - you are unemployed but expect to apply for employment within 60 days.
 In addition, by September 2005 all consumers will be entitled to one free disclosure every 12 months upon request from each nationwide credit bureau and from nationwide specialty consumer reporting agencies. See www.ftc.gov/credit for additional information.
 - You have the right to ask for a credit score. Credit scores are numerical summaries of your credit-worthiness based on information from credit bureaus. You may request a credit score from consumer reporting agencies that create scores or distribute scores used in residential real property loans, but you will have to pay for it. In some mortgage transactions, you will receive credit score information for free from the mortgage lender.
 - You have the right to dispute incomplete or inaccurate information. If you identify information in your file that is incomplete or inaccurate, and report it to the consumer reporting agency, the agency must investigate unless your dispute is frivolous. See www.ftc.gov/credit for an explanation of dispute procedures.
 - Consumer reporting agencies must correct or delete inaccurate, incomplete, or unverifiable information. Inaccurate, incomplete or unverifiable information must be removed or corrected, usually within 30 days. However, a consumer reporting agency may continue to report information it has verified as accurate.
 - Consumer reporting agencies may not report outdated negative information. In most cases, a consumer reporting agency may not report negative information that is more than seven years old, or bankruptcies that are more than 10 years old.
 - Access to your file is limited. A consumer reporting agency may provide information about you only to people with a valid need—usually to consider an application with a creditor, insurer, employer, landlord, or other business. The FCRA specifies those with a valid need for access.
 - You must give your consent for reports to be provided to employers. A consumer reporting agency may not give out information about you to your employer, or a potential employer, without your written consent given to the employer. Written consent generally is not required in the trucking industry. For more information, go to www.ftc.gov/credit.
 - You may limit “prescreened” offers of credit and insurance you get based on information in your credit report. Unsolicited “prescreened” offers for credit and insurance must include a toll-free phone number you can call if you choose to remove your name and address from the lists these offers are based on. You may opt-out with the nationwide credit bureaus at 1-888-5-OPTOUT (1-888-567-8688).
 - You may seek damages from violators. If a consumer reporting agency, or, in some cases, a user of consumer reports or a furnisher of information to a consumer reporting agency violates the FCRA, you may be able to sue in state or federal court.
 - Identity theft victims and active duty military personnel have additional rights. For more information, visit www.ftc.gov/credit.
- States may enforce the FCRA, and many states have their own consumer reporting laws. In some cases, you may have more rights under state law. For more information, contact your state or local consumer protection agency or your state Attorney General. Federal enforcers are:

AGENT'S CONTRACT

P.O. BOX 2231, BATON ROUGE, LA 70821-2231
929 GOVERNMENT ST., BATON ROUGE, LA 70802
PHONE (800) 535-8110 / FAX (225) 343-1747

THIS AGREEMENT, effective this _____ day of _____, _____ (Effective Date), made by and between GUARANTY INCOME LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY ("Company" or "GILICO") and _____ SALES AGENT ("You," "Your" or "Agent"), provides as follows:

SECTION 1-Appointment

1.1 APPOINTMENT. Subject to the provisions of this Agreement, GILICO hereby appoints Agent as a sales agent of GILICO. This appointment shall also include the sub-agents, if any, which are or may be appointed and assigned by GILICO to Agent as approved hereunder.

1.2 TERRITORY. It is understood and agreed that this Agreement does not grant any exclusive territory to Agent and does not impose upon Agent any territorial limit of operation. This contract authorizes You to solicit applications in all states in which You are properly licensed and appointed with GILICO, and in which GILICO is admitted to do business.

1.3 RELATIONSHIP. This Agreement is not a contract of employment and does not create the relationship of employer and employee between GILICO and Agent. Agent is not expected or obliged to devote full time and effort to the business of GILICO or to represent GILICO exclusively. It is understood and agreed that this Agreement calls for results and does not purport to control the time or manner of performance of Agent. Rather, Agent is an independent contractor and shall exercise his or her own judgement and discretion in the conduct of the business contemplated under this Agreement, subject to the provisions hereof. Agent specifically recognizes and accepts responsibility for payment of any applicable taxes levied by Federal, State or Local authorities as a result of compensation arising hereunder.

SECTION 2-Authority

2.1 GENERAL PROVISION. The powers and authority of Agent are limited to only those expressly provided under this Agreement. Any and all such powers and authority shall continue only during the duration of this Agreement and shall terminate on the date of termination of this Agreement.

2.2 SOLICITATION. Agent is hereby empowered and authorized to solicit applications for policies on forms then being issued or offered by Company both personally and through properly licensed sub-agents and brokers appointed and assigned by Company to Agent.

2.3 RECRUITING. Agent may recruit and recommend the appointment by Company of sub-agents and brokers. Agent shall have no authority to make any such appointment on behalf of Company, and no purported appointment shall be valid unless and until such sub-agent or broker has been appointed by Company and has executed an Agent's Contract or other form provided by Company and signed by the Company.

The Company shall not be obligated to appoint any sub-agent or broker or to assign any sub-agent or broker to Agent, and Company expressly reserves the exclusive right and sole discretion to assign and to terminate the appointment or assignment of any sub-agent or broker at any time. The assignment of any sub-agent or broker to Agent shall be terminated immediately upon the earlier of the termination of this Agreement or of the contract between Company and such sub-agent or broker.

2.4 LIMITATION OF AUTHORITY. Agent shall have no power or authority to, and hereby agrees and warrants that he or she will not do anything not expressly authorized herein including, but not limited to, any of the following:

- (a) waive, alter, amend, modify or discharge any policy or contract of the Company;
- (b) waive forfeiture under any policy;
- (c) quote rates other than as provided by the Company;
- (d) receive any funds for the benefit of the Company, except initial gross premiums;
- (e) incur any liability, obligation or indebtedness on behalf of the Company;
- (f) endorse or negotiate any checks or other instruments payable to the order of the Company; or
- (g) voluntarily accept service of process on behalf of the Company.

SECTION 3-Duties and Responsibilities

3.1 GENERAL PROVISIONS. Agent and all sub-agents and brokers assigned to the Agent shall fairly, truthfully and properly represent the Company and its products and services and shall faithfully perform all the duties within the scope of the appointment under this Agreement. In particular, but without limitation, Agent agrees to perform the duties set forth below.

3.2 PREMIUMS. Agent shall collect and receive or cause to be collected and received the initial gross premium on policies secured by Agent or by sub-agents and brokers assigned by Company to Agent. Premiums shall be received only by check or money order payable to GILICO and shall be received by You as a fiduciary, and shall not be used by You for any personal use, but You shall immediately remit all such premiums to the Company. All such premiums and other funds shall at all times remain the property of the Company.

3.3 HANDLING OF APPLICATIONS. Upon receipt, You shall submit to GILICO all properly completed applications, whether or not the applicant has been examined by a Medical Examiner. All medical examinations are to be completed by an authorized Medical Examiner and mailed directly to our Home Office by the Medical Examiner. GILICO may reject, or require the amendment of, any applications for insurance. You shall be liable for any charges incurred by GILICO for medical examinations and inspection charges on insurance policies or annuity contracts issued as applied for and not taken by the applicant.

3.4 RULES. Agent agrees to become familiar with and to comply with all of the Company's Rules and Procedures and with all applicable statutes and regulations of any state or jurisdiction where Agent and any sub-agent or broker assigned to him or her is licensed. These rules, procedures and statutes may be amended from time to time.

3.5 EXPENSES. It is expressly understood and agreed that Agent shall be responsible for all costs, expenses, obligations, debts, damages, taxes, fees and penalties incurred by Agent under this Agreement or otherwise.

3.6 ACTS OF OTHERS. Agent shall be responsible and liable for the acts and omissions of the sub-agents and brokers recruited or assigned by the Company to Agent and for any damages and obligations arising therefrom, which acts and omissions shall, for purposes of the Agreement, be deemed to be those of Agent and not the Company.

SECTION 4-Compensation

4.1 DETERMINATION. The full compensation of Agent under this Agreement shall be determined solely in accordance with the provisions of the Commission Addendum or Addenda, attached hereto and made a part hereof, which are in effect on the issue date of the policies solicited by Agent or his/her sub-agents and brokers. GILICO shall have the exclusive right and sole discretion at any time to unilaterally terminate any such Addendum or to modify all or any portion of any such Addendum, or the rate, amount or method for determining the commission or compensation, provided such action is uniformly taken with respect to all persons to whom such Addendum apply. Such modifications or terminations shall become effective no less than thirty (30) days from the date GILICO gives written notice to Agent, and unless otherwise agreed to by Agent and GILICO in writing, shall have no effect on compensation resulting from policies with an issue date prior to the effective date of such modification or termination.

4.2 PAYMENT. Compensation shall become due the Agent only upon actual receipt by GILICO of the premiums or other payment due GILICO and upon application of such premiums or payment to the policy or contract to which it applies. Compensation shall be paid in accordance with the standard rules and procedures of GILICO, which rules and procedures may be changed by GILICO at any time. In any case in which commissions are to be shared, the application relating to such business must be signed by all participating agents and the production credits and commissions shall be divided as agreed by agents and GILICO.

4.3 ADJUSTMENTS. GILICO shall have the exclusive right and sole discretion to withdraw, rescind, cancel, terminate or reduce all or any portion of coverage on any policy or contract issued by GILICO without liability to Agent. If GILICO exercises such right and tenders a return of all or any portion of the premium or payment thereof, waiver of surrender charges, or if GILICO is required by law to tender a return of all or any portion of premium or payment, any compensation received by the Agent with respect to the amount of premium or payment so tendered shall be rescinded and shall constitute an indebtedness of Agent to GILICO. Agent shall remit the amount of such compensation to GILICO in full within ten (10) days after receipt of notice of demand therefor. If any policy issued pursuant to this agreement is deemed by GILICO in its sole discretion to replace any other policy on the same person, then the compensation, if any, payable with respect to the replacement policy shall be determined by GILICO and its determination shall be conclusive. The termination of a policy previously issued on the same person, within six (6) months prior or subsequent to the date of application for a new policy shall be conclusive that it is a replacement policy.

4.4 INDEBTEDNESS. Any money or thing of value due Company from Agent, whether arising under this Agreement, any prior or subsequent agreement, or otherwise, or arising under any agreement between the Company and any sub-agent or broker assigned to the Agent, shall constitute an indebtedness of Agent to Company. Company shall at any time have the right to set off all or part of any such indebtedness against any amount payable to Agent under this Agreement, any prior or subsequent Agreement, or otherwise. As security for any and all such indebtedness, Agent hereby transfers, assigns and grants to Company a security interest in and a first lien upon all amounts payable to Agent under this Agreement, any prior or subsequent Agreement, or otherwise. The said security interest and lien and the said right of set off and recoupment shall not be extinguished by the termination of this Agreement.

4.5 VESTING. In the event of a termination of this Agreement, ALL first year and renewal commissions for the first through the tenth policy years are vested unless Agent is terminated for cause. Commissions will continue to be paid until total commissions earned annually amount to less than $500, at which time the Company has the option of paying, in a lump sum, the present value (as determined by the Company) of future commissions. Commissions are not vested after the tenth policy year. However, during the continuance of this Agreement, You will be paid an Active Agent's Service Fee on premiums paid to GILICO in accordance with the provisions of the applicable Commission Addenda.

4.6 LICENSING. Agent will pay the fee for Agent's initial resident license and appointment fees. Agent will bear the cost of any nonresident license and appointment fees for Agent, sub-agents and brokers. Company will pay the resident renewal appointment fee, if Agent, sub-agent or broker has produced sufficient business in the previous twelve months.

4.7 COMPANY FORMS. The Company will provide Agent, at Company's cost, with application forms, brochures and the various papers necessary to write and service policies. Agent will be responsible for all other business expenses.

4.8 ADVERTISING AND SALES PROMOTION. Company will furnish Agent, at Company's cost, all advertising materials, circulars and other Company printed sales matter. Company will consider Agent's suggestions or requests for specialized solicitation material and advertising, but none may be used without prior written approval of Company.

SECTION 5-Termination

5.1 BY NOTICE. This Agreement may be terminated without cause by either party by giving to the other party thirty (30) days written notice to the other party's last known address as shown by the records of the party giving such notice.

5.2 AUTOMATIC. This Agreement shall automatically terminate as of the date of death or incompetency of Agent. In the event of such death or incompetency, any compensation due Agent hereunder shall be paid when due to the lawful successors of Agent's estate.

5.3 FOR CAUSE. The Company may terminate this Agreement "For Cause" by sending to the last known address of Agent a written notice of such termination which shall be effective immediately upon mailing of such notice, if Agent does any of the following acts:

- (a) violates any state insurance law, regulation or policy;
- (b) fails to strictly observe any of the Company's Rules and Procedures;
- (c) withholds any money, policy receipt or property of the Company;
- (d) rebates or offers to rebate all or part of a premium on a policy of insurance issued or to be issued by Company, in violation of the laws of any state;
- (e) in the sole judgement of the Company, establishes a pattern of inducing or attempting to induce policyholders of the Company to discontinue payment of premiums or replace or relinquish any policy;
- (f) induces or attempts to induce any Agent or sub-agents to leave the Company's services;
- (g) violates any criminal law or statute;
- (h) makes any material misrepresentation or performs any fraud or dishonesty affecting the Company or its policyholders;
- (i) breaches or violates any provision of this Agreement.

Company shall have, for each and every such act or omission, the right to terminate this Agreement for cause, and Agent shall, as of the date of termination, unconditionally forfeit all rights, claims and demands whatsoever of Agent against the Company for both first year and renewal commissions or other compensation, but nothing herein shall be construed to affect any rights or claims of Company against Agent under this Agreement or otherwise.

SECTION 6-Effect of Termination

6.1 GENERALLY. Upon any termination of this Agreement, Your authority to act as Agent for the Company shall terminate. Any and all indebtedness of Agent to Company shall mature, accelerate and become immediately due and payable in full notwithstanding any agreement to the contrary. Agent shall immediately and without further notice return to the Company all then undelivered policies and all property furnished or provided to Agent by Company.

6.2 SUBSEQUENT TO TERMINATION. If, subsequent to termination of this Agreement, Agent shall induce policyholders to discontinue premiums or replace or relinquish any policy, misappropriate or impair any funds or property of the Company or fails to remit any funds or property of Company within ten (10) days after receipt of demand therefor, all vested commissions shall be forfeited by Agent and the Company shall retain all other claims it may have against Agent.

SECTION 7-General Provisions

7.1 ENTIRE CONTRACT. This Agreement, the Commission Addenda attached hereto, and the Company's Rules and Procedures, as amended, contain the entire understanding between the parties and incorporates all prior and concurrent contracts and Agreements there between, whether written or oral on all matters. No modification of any provision of this Agreement, except modifications of the Commission Addenda and the Company's Rules and Procedures, shall be effective unless endorsed in writing by Agent and the Company.

7.2 PRIOR CONTRACTS. Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraph 7.1, above, no provision of this Agreement shall be deemed to abrogate or render void any provision of any written agreement executed by the parties hereto prior to the Effective Date of this Agreement relating to the form and amount of commissions with respect to policies issued by the Company prior to such Effective Date.

7.3 WAIVER. The forbearance, neglect or delay of either party to strictly enforce any provision of this Agreement shall not at any time operate as a waiver or estoppel of any right of the parties under this Agreement, regardless of the similarity of the circumstances.

7.4 ASSIGNMENT. Agent shall not assign, transfer, encumber or otherwise relinquish or dispose of this Agreement or any right or interest hereunder, except upon written approval of the President or a Vice President of the Company. Any purported assignment, transfer, encumbrance or other relinquishment or disposition of such right or interest not so approved shall be void and unenforceable against the Company regardless of notice thereof. Company makes no representations as to the validity of any assignment.

7.5 RECIPROCAL INDEMNITY PROVISIONS. You agree to indemnify and hold the Company harmless from and against any and all expenses, losses and damages, including attorneys' fees and expenses of litigation (collectively, "Losses"), arising from Your unauthorized acts, acts done in violation of the terms of this Agreement, and acts of proven malpractice, negligence or criminal activity, whether such Losses are incurred directly by the Company or through third party claims, including settlements thereof by the Company based on what the Company considers to be material hazards to litigation.

The Company agrees to indemnify and hold Agent harmless from and against any and all Losses incident to, arising out of, in connection with, or resulting from the activities of Company, its employees, its affiliated companies and their employees except to the extent such Losses arise from or as a result of Agent's unauthorized acts, acts done in violation of this Agreement, or acts of proven malpractice, negligence or criminal activity, whether such Losses are incurred directly by Agent or through third party claims.

7.6 NOTICE. Any notices as required hereunder, including but not limited to notice of termination, may be served personally or by ordinary mail addressed to the last known address of the party for whom intended, and in the latter event shall be deemed served upon such party on the date deposited in the United States mail, postage prepaid.

7.7 SITUS. This Agreement is made and performable in East Baton Rouge Parish, Louisiana. The parties agree that any action at law or in equity hereunder shall be brought exclusively in East Baton Rouge Parish, Louisiana and that the laws of the state of Louisiana, except for the conflict of laws provision, shall govern any dispute arising hereunder. In any litigation between the parties, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorney fees from the losing party.

7.8 REMEDIES. All rights and remedies under this Agreement which are afforded at law or in equity shall be cumulative and not alternative.

In witness whereof, the Company and Agent, intending to be legally bound hereby, have executed this Agreement on the date(s) indicated below.

GUARANTY INCOME LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

PRODUCER PRIVACY POLICY

(AN ADDENDUM TO THE AGENT CONTRACT)

This Addendum (“Addendum”) is attached to and becomes a part of the insurance agent, agency, producer or other insurance distributor agreement (the “Agent Contract”) between the licensed insurance agent or agency hereinafter referred to as (“Agent”) and Guaranty Income Life Insurance Company (“GILICO”). This Addendum is effective as of December 15, 2015.

This Addendum is intended to further define Section 3: Duties and Responsibilities Subsection 3.4 Rules. Agent agrees to become familiar with and to comply with all of GILICO’s Rules and Procedures and with all applicable statutes and regulations of any state or jurisdiction where Agent and any sub-agent or broker assigned to him or her is licensed. These rules, procedures, and statutes may be amended from time to time.

Nonpublic Personal Information (NPI) and Protected Health Information (PHI) shall be collectively called “Information” in this Addendum. NPI is defined as personally identifiable financial information that is not publicly available. PHI is defined as any information about health status, provision of health care, or payment for health care that can be linked to a specific individual, as set forth in 45 C.F.R Sec. 1643501.

All information which any party obtains as a result of this Agent Contract shall not be collected or used, disclosed, reused or re-disclosed to any third party, except to carry out the purposes for which the Information was disclosed. The Agent shall maintain the confidentiality of Information consistent with GILICO’s Privacy Promise, which is available for review on our public website www.gilico.com or GILICO’s HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices for Personal Health Information included with each Annuicare® application kit.

The Agent should use all commercially reasonable efforts and appropriate safeguards to maintain the integrity, confidentiality, and security of Information and to prevent the unauthorized use or disclosure of Information as required by law, and to comply with the security standards of HIPAA.

It is the sole responsibility of the Agent to require all of its employees, representatives, or agents and third party service providers that receive or have access to client Information to agree to adhere to these same restrictions and conditions.

In the event of an unauthorized disclosure, you are required to notify the GILICO Privacy Officer at the following email address privacyofficer@gilico.com within seven (7) business days of any unauthorized use or disclosure of Information, define who made the unauthorized use or disclosure and what you have done or are doing to mitigate any deleterious effect of the unauthorized use or disclosure and define what corrective action you have taken to prevent future unauthorized use or disclosure of any Information.

List account number(s) here (optional)

Part I Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN)

Enter your TIN in the appropriate box. The TIN provided must match the name given on the "Name" line to avoid backup withholding. For individuals, this is your social security number (SSN). However, for a resident alien, sole proprietor, or disregarded entity, see the Part I instructions on page 3. For other entities, it is your employer identification number (EIN). If you do not have a number, see How to get a TIN on page 3.

Note. If the account is in more than one name, see the chart on page 4 for guidelines on whose number to enter.

Employer identification number

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

1. The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me), and
2. I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and
3. I am a U.S. citizen or other U.S. person (defined below), and
4. The FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that I am exempt from FATCA reporting is correct.

Certification instructions. You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. For mortgage interest paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, contributions to an individual retirement arrangement (IRA), and generally, payments other than interest and dividends, you are not required to sign the certification, but you must provide your correct TIN. See the instructions on page 3.

General Instructions

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code unless otherwise noted.

Future developments. The IRS has created a page on IRS.gov for information about Form W-9, at www.irs.gov/w9. Information about any future developments affecting Form W-9 (such as legislation enacted after we release it) will be posted on that page.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, payments made to you in settlement of payment card and third party network transactions, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
3. Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income, and

4. Certify that FATCA code(s) entered on this form (if any) indicating that you are exempt from the FATCA reporting, is correct.

Note. If you are a U.S. person and a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax under section 1446 on any foreign partners' share of effectively connected taxable income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, the rules under section 1446 require a partnership to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the section 1446 withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid section 1446 withholding on your share of partnership income.

John H. Lancaster, President

GUARANTY INCOME LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY

COMPLIANCE

Guaranty Income Life Insurance Company (“GILICO” or “Company” is dedicated to providing you, our business partner, the ability to deliver the finest insurance products and services available. Meeting this commitment requires teamwork. We will do our part to provide products and the people and systems to back them up, and to back you up. Your commitment is required to represent us with the highest standards of personal and professional integrity. You are expected to have full knowledge of the laws under which you must operate, and of our products and procedures.

LICENSING, APPOINTMENT AND COMMISSIONS

You are responsible for maintaining all licensing and appointment requirements in the jurisdictions you represent us or our products. You are expected to know and adhere to laws that specify when you may solicit business, when commissions may be paid, and which products are approved.

GILICO pays commissions on a weekly basis. Whether paid to you or not, no commission is earned until premiums have been applied to the policy, and all policy delivery requirements have been met.

KNOWLEDGE AND TRAINING

Your Agent’s Contract is your agreement with GILICO. Read it carefully.

You are expected to have thorough knowledge of all applicable Company requirements, rules and procedures as well as each of our products you sell. This information is provided to you in the following ways:

1. This Agent’s Guide Rules & Procedures contains the General Policies, Rules and Procedures of the Company. You are responsible for reading this Guide.
2. The Marketing Organization (“M.O.”), which contracted you, is familiar with the Company’s products and procedures. Your M.O. as well as the Sales Department at GILICO are experienced and trained to assist you.
3. The Company provides Sales Brochures and/or training material on each of its products giving complete information for that product, including Underwriting guidelines and minimum and maximum policy size. Product details are also available on the agents’ Web site: www.gilicolink.com.
4. GILICO periodically updates its rules and procedures through bulletins and newsletters, which are posted on our Web site and e-mailed to you.

GENERAL POLICIES, RULES AND PROCEDURES

1. Insurable Interest – If the owner or beneficiary listed on an application is not a relative of the insured, a statement explaining insurable interest is required.
2. Replacements and Exchanges – This Company discourages replacements unless it is for the benefit of the policyowner. The agent's responsibility is to assure the policyowner's interest is best served. The proper replacement and disclosure forms must be completed for both internal and external replacement. GILICO's policy is to notify existing insurers that replacement is contemplated.
3. Suitability – You are expected to provide your clients with products which serve their needs, and which they are able to afford.

ADVERTISING

Any material, which includes a reference to GILICO, is considered advertising and must be submitted for Home Office approval before use. All advertising submitted shall conform to Company rules and applicable regulations relating to advertising in the states where the materials will be used. Publicity releases, mailers, and the use of any written or printed material pertaining to GILICO policies, plans, financial condition, or statements concerning production must be approved by GILICO prior to use. Any agent using unapproved advertising will be subject to termination of appointment, fines by regulatory authorities and possible loss of license.

All advertising must be submitted for approval on the Advertising Submission Form available from the Home Office. A copy of the form AD/499 is enclosed.

All Advertising Submission Forms must be sent to GILICO Sales Department with a copy of the proposed advertisement. If the advertisement is in the form of a radio or television ad, a tape of such advertisement with a written copy of the script must be sent with the submission form.

AGENT'S CODE OF PROFESSIONAL ETHICS

1. I will fully comply with all ethics and compliance standards and procedures established and communicated to me by GILICO.
2. I will fully comply and remain current with the laws and regulations of the jurisdictions in which I am licensed to conduct business for GILICO, and will obtain all required licenses and appointments.
3. I will attempt to discover and understand the needs and financial circumstances of my clients. I will fully explain GILICO's products and services and make every effort to provide the same quality and level of service to my clients that I would expect for myself.

4. I will not negotiate or deposit any funds payable to GILICO or payable to any payee other than myself, nor will I create any legal obligation for GILICO that is not within the scope of my authority.
5. I will conduct myself in a professional manner and will accept the decisions made by GILICO and its employees. I will treat others with the same esteem I expect for myself.
6. I will not waive any of GILICO's rights or requirements, bind GILICO by any statement, promise or representation, or collect any money other than as provided in my Agent's Contract.
7. I will only use appropriate sales materials and illustrations approved by GILICO and will include all appropriate disclaimers. I will not advertise or publicize GILICO's name by using it in any advertising or publicity medium unless GILICO has approved the content in writing. I will not alter, or otherwise modify policies, policy envelopes, sales illustrations, or literature provided by GILICO.
8. All signatures on applications or other documents submitted by me will be authentic. I will not sign another person's name, nor will I sign as a witness to any person's signature on any application or other form relating to GILICO's business unless the signature is written in my presence or otherwise noted on the form.
9. I will deliver all policies and contracts to the policyowner in a timely manner.
10. I will not be the assignee, owner or beneficiary of any policy issued by GILICO other than a policy on myself or on a member of my immediate family unless authorized in writing by GILICO.
11. I will not enter into any contracts with any sub-agents or brokers for the solicitation of insurance or share commissions with anyone not licensed and appointed with GILICO.
12. I will not represent GILICO in any manner at all before any State Insurance Department or Official, or before any Governmental Agency, without first consulting with and receiving specific prior written approval of GILICO.
13. I will not charge for services provided to any applicant, policyowner, beneficiary, or assignee, such as for explaining the terms of a policy, collecting policy proceeds, making or submitting proofs of claim, or settlement of any claim, or any similar service.
14. I will not misrepresent any of GILICO's products, nor make any disparaging remarks or use any disparaging literature about GILICO's competitors.

PRODUCER'S GUIDE TO ANTI-MONEY LAUNDERING

The USA Patriot Act includes provisions intended to prevent the financial services industry, including the insurance sector, from being used for money laundering and terrorist financing by criminals and terrorists. The Act requires insurance companies to establish anti-money laundering (AML) programs that comply with minimum standards developed by the Department of the Treasury. Regulations issued by the Treasury Department and its Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) establish minimum requirements for insurance company anti-money laundering programs and require insurers to report suspicious transactions.

WHAT RESPONSIBILITIES WILL PRODUCERS HAVE UNDER THE NEW RULES?

FinCEN has made clear that producers will have an important role to play in insurance companies' anti-money laundering programs because they have direct contact with customers and are thus often in the best position to gather information and detect suspicious activity. To assure that insurance companies and their distribution partners collaborate in preventing money laundering, the new rules require life insurance companies to integrate producers into their anti-money laundering programs and to monitor the producers' compliance with the programs.

WHAT IS MONEY LAUNDERING AND TERRORIST FINANCING?

MONEY LAUNDERING. Money laundering is a varied and often complicated process that can, but does not always, involve cash transactions. Illegally-obtained money is filtered through a series of transactions that eventually make the money appear to be obtained from "clean," or legal, activities. The money laundering process has been described as having three phases that often overlap:

Placement—Injecting ill-gotten proceeds, including cash, into the financial system through transactions such as bank deposits or the purchase of certain insurance products.

Layering—Separating illicit proceeds from their criminal source through complex financial transactions.

Integration—Putting the proceeds back into circulation in the economy, with the appearance of legality.

TERRORIST FINANCING. Terrorist financing involves the use of money, which may be lawfully obtained, to fund illegal activities. Because the transactions often have a legitimate origin and can often involve small amounts of money, terrorist financing can be more difficult to identify than money-laundering activities, although an effective anti-money laundering program can help prevent the use of funds for terrorism activities.

"COVERED PRODUCTS." The rules are not applicable to all insurance products. Rather, the Treasury Department identified categories of "covered products" that in its judgment presented sufficient AML risk to justify regulation. "Covered products" are defined to include:

- A permanent life insurance policy, other than a group life insurance policy;
- An annuity contract, other than a group annuity contract; or
- Any other insurance product with features of cash value or investment.

Accordingly, property casualty coverage, health insurance, and term life insurance, among other kinds of products, need not be included in an insurance company's AML program. Insurance companies may offer guidance on which of their products are covered under their programs. All current GILICO life and annuity products, excluding dental policies, are included in the definition of covered products.

CUSTOMER INFORMATION. The new rules require insurance companies to collect customer information from producers, among other sources, to support their anti-money laundering programs and to detect and report suspicious transactions. FinCEN has made clear that insurance producers have a crucial role to play in this area:

Insurance producers are an integral part of the insurance industry due to their contact with customers. Insurance producers typically are involved in sales operations and are therefore in direct contact with customers. As a result, the producer will often be in a critical position of knowledge as to the source of investment assets, the needs of the client and the objectives for which the insurance products are being purchased.

METHODS OF PAYMENT. Certain forms of payment – including cash, money orders, traveler's checks, and bank checks – can be used in the placement phase of a money laundering scheme. To manage this risk, GILICO has set limits on the forms of payments that will be accepted and the amounts acceptable for some of them. The goal is to reduce the chances that the insurance business will be involved in money laundering, without excluding forms of payment with a legitimate business purpose. Because producers often collect at least the first premium due under a policy, they may be called upon to inform customers of these standards and enforce them.

SUSPICIOUS TRANSACTIONS. Producers are often in the best position to detect suspicious activity – for instance, customers who are resistant to requests for information, who are indifferent to the features of a product, except for withdrawal rights, or who seek products inconsistent with their apparent needs. Producers should be aware of “red flags” and should notify GILICO's AML Compliance Officer.

RED FLAGS. Some examples of “red flags” associated with existing or potential customers include, but are not limited to, the following:

- The purchase of an insurance product that appears to be inconsistent with a customer's needs;
- Any unusual method of payment, particularly by cash or cash equivalents (when such method is, in fact, unusual);
- The purchase of an insurance product with monetary instruments in structured amounts;
- The early termination of an insurance product, especially at a cost to the customer, or where cash was tendered and/or the refund check is directed to an apparently unrelated third party;
- The transfer of the benefit of an insurance product to an apparently unrelated third party;

- Little or no concern by a customer for the investment performance of an insurance product, but much concern about the early termination features of the product;
- The reluctance by a customer to provide identifying information when purchasing an insurance product, or the providing of minimal or seemingly fictitious information; and
- The borrowing of the maximum amount available soon after purchasing the product.

Under federal law, insurance producers, as well as insurance companies, are protected from liability to customers for disclosing possible criminal activity to their insurance companies, law enforcement, and certain government supervisory agencies.

SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY REPORTS AND THE FACT THAT THEY HAVE BEEN FILED MUST BE KEPT CONFIDENTIAL. In particular, customers cannot be notified that a suspicious activity has been reported.

To insure the prompt and accurate reporting of suspicious activity, GILICO has established a “red flag” hyperlink on GILICOLink. “Red flag” activity may also be reported by:

Introduction to HIPAA

The insurance industry's ability to use and disclose protected health information (PHI) and/or electronic protected health information (ePHI), collectively named within this document as PHI, is regulated and restricted. The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) and the amendments under the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act of 2013 (HITECH or the Act) require appropriate safeguards to protect the privacy of personal health information. They also set limits and conditions on the uses and disclosures that may be made of such information without client/insured authorization.

Protected Health Information. Protected health information means information that is created or received and relates to the past, present, or future physical or mental health condition of a client/insured; the provision of health care to a client/insured; or the past, present, or future payment for the provision of health care to a client/insured; and that identifies the client/insured or for which there is a reasonable basis to believe the information can be used to identify the client/insured. Protected health information includes information of persons living or deceased.

Personally Identifiable Information (PII). Any information that can identify, contact, or locate an individual, either alone or combined with other easily accessible sources, is PII. PII includes information that is linked or linkable to an individual, such as medical, educational, financial, and employment data. PII is much like PHI, but it does not contain medical information. GILICO's goal is to protect PII the same as PHI, although PII is not covered by the HIPAA and HITECH Acts. The Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999 required the creation of GILICO's Privacy Promise, which outlines how we use, store and interact with PII. GILICO is committed to protecting our clients'/insureds' personal information and maintaining the highest level of trust, honesty and integrity. You may view GILICO's Privacy Promise on the GILICO website, www.gilico.com, or the GILICOLink website, www.gilicolink.com.

Some examples of PHI are any medical information, plus at least one of (PII) items:

- Client's/insured's policy number
- Client's/insured's name, full name, maiden name, mother's maiden name or alias
- Social Security Numbers, Passport number, Driver's license number, Government issued ID
- All elements of dates (except year) directly related to an individual, including birth date, admission date, date of death
- Client's/insured's demographic information (e.g., address, telephone number, e-mail address, fax number, URL, IP address)
- Vehicle identifiers and serial numbers, license plate numbers
- Credit card / Debit card account numbers, in combination with a PIN or security code
- Images of the client/insured; biometric identifiers, including fingerprints and voiceprints, photos
- Information about an individual that is linkable to one of the above and includes: place of birth, marital status, gender, race, religion, weight, activities, geographical indicators, and employment, medical, education, and financial information
- Information doctors, nurses and other health care providers put in a client's/insured's medical record or claim documentation
- Conversations a provider has about a client's/insured's care or treatment with others
- Information about a client/insured in a provider's computer system or an insurer's computer system
- Billing information about a client/insured for an insured's claim
- Any health information that can lead to the identity of an individual or the contents of the information can be used to make a reasonable assumption as to the identity of the individual (medical device identifiers and serial numbers)

Summary Guidelines for Safeguarding the Privacy of Health Information

These are general guidelines centered on how to safeguard health information and safeguard confidentiality when using normal business communications, such as conversations, telephone, faxes, mail, and electronic mail. Wherever practical, the material containing Protected Health Information (PHI) should be labeled as confidential on the document, diskette, CD, or other medium. PHI maintained electronically should be password-protected in all media.

Also, when using and disclosing PHI, you must take reasonable measures to confirm the information is protected. Below are simple safeguarding tasks that should be used when communicating in a work environment that necessitates access to and use and disclosure of PHI. Remember to limit your communications of PHI to the minimum-necessary for the intended purpose. Restrict your communications to those who have a valid “need to know” the information.

Oral Conversations – in person <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Discuss client’s/insured’s PHI in private. <input type="checkbox"/> Be aware of those around you and lower your voice when discussing client’s/insured’s health information. <input type="checkbox"/> If possible, point out health information on paper or on-screen non- verbally when discussing client’s/insured’s health information in the work area. Oral Conversations - telephone <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Follow the above guidelines for “Oral Conversations-in person” <input type="checkbox"/> Don’t use names instead say: “I have a question about a client”. <input type="checkbox"/> Use appropriate protocols to identify callers when giving out PHI over the phone. <input type="checkbox"/> Never leave PHI on voice messages; instead leave a message requesting a return call to discuss a client/insured, giving only your name and phone number. Fax <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Put fax machines in a safe location, not out in the open or in a public area with high-traffic or easy access and visibility. <input type="checkbox"/> Use a cover sheet clearly identifying the intended recipient and include your name and contact information on the cover sheet. <input type="checkbox"/> Include a confidentiality statement on the cover sheet of faxes that contain PHI. <input type="checkbox"/> Do not include or reference PHI on cover sheet. <input type="checkbox"/> Confirm fax number is correct before sending. <input type="checkbox"/> Send fax containing client/insured health information only when the authorized recipient is there to receive it whenever possible. <input type="checkbox"/> Verify that fax was received by authorized recipient; check the transmission report to ensure correct number was reached and when necessary contact the authorized recipient to confirm receipt. <input type="checkbox"/> Deliver received faxes to recipient as soon as possible. Do not leave faxes unattended at fax machine. Email <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Do not include PHI in Subject-line or in Body of email. <input type="checkbox"/> Transmit PHI only via encrypted methods. <input type="checkbox"/> Include a confidentiality statement on emails that contain any PHI in email attachments. <input type="checkbox"/> Do not send attachment passwords in the same email as the attachment. <input type="checkbox"/> Include your contact information (name and phone number minimum) as part of the email. <input type="checkbox"/> When possible, set email sending options to request an automatic return receipt from your recipient(s). <input type="checkbox"/> Request that email recipients call to discuss specific client/insured data. <input type="checkbox"/> Do not store emails or email attachments with PHI on your hard drive but copy and store to a secure server. Delete the email and the attachments when they are no longer needed. 	Courier and Regular Mail <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Use sealed secured envelopes to send PHI. <input type="checkbox"/> Verify that the authorized person has received the package. <input type="checkbox"/> Deliver all mail promptly to the recipient. <input type="checkbox"/> Mailboxes must be in safe areas and not located in public or high-traffic areas. Inter-Office Mail <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> Put PHI in closed inter-office envelopes. As an added precaution, put PHI in a sealed envelope inside the inter-office envelope. <input type="checkbox"/> Identify recipient by name <input type="checkbox"/> Distribute inter-office mail promptly to recipients.
